Conclusion

Creating your first online course is one of the most strategic moves you can make as a small business owner. It allows you to leverage your expertise beyond one-on-one client work, create passive income, and significantly increase your authority in the market. Remember, the goal is progress, not perfection. Start with a simple, well-targeted course idea, use the tools you already have, and launch to your existing audience. Your knowledge is valuable—it's time to package it and share it with the world.
